32 (h) The term "additional rent" means, for any year, the amounts spent 33 or borne by the ground lease residential cooperative during such year
34 pursuant to, or in order to comply with, the subject residential cooper-
35 ative ground lease for the payment of real estate taxes, insurance, 36 repair, maintenance, including, without limitation, maintenance as may 37 be required pursuant to any facade inspection safety program implemented 38 by any city, municipality or other government entity within the state of 39 New York, and/or other capital improvements for or with respect to the 40 residential ground lease cooperative apartment building.

41 (i) The term "maximum annual rent increase percentage" means, for any 42 year, the greater of: (x) three percent (3%); and (y) the consumer price

50 increases in additional rent paid by the ground lease residential coop-51 erative during the prior year, in no event exceed the maximum annual 52 rent increase percentage of the base rent payable by the ground lease
53 residential cooperative in the prior year. In the event the subject
54 residential cooperative ground lease provides for increases in base rent
55 on a periodic basis less frequently than annually, the increase in base 56 rent for any period, when taken together with the amount of any annual

1 increase in additional rent paid by the ground lease residential cooper-
2 ative during such period, may not represent more than the compound
3 increase that results from applying the maximum annual rent increase 4 percentage for each applicable year above the base rent for the prior 5 base rent in effect. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply 6 regardless of the methodology for determining the base rent or any 7 increases therein as set forth in the subject residential cooperative 8 ground lease instrument. In the event the amount of any increase in 9 additional rent during any year exceeds the maximum annual rent increase 10 percentage of the base rent for such year, such excess amount shall be 11 carried forward to reduce the amount of any increase in base rent other-12 wise permitted hereunder in any future period until such excess amounts 13 have been fully applied.

14 3. After the effective date of this section, any residential ground
15 lease cooperative shall have the right to renew its subject residential 16 cooperative ground lease on the same terms and conditions, subject to 17 this section, as in effect at time of renewal, with such renewal exer-
18 cisable at any time prior to or within ninety days after having received 19 written notice from the subject ground lease owners of the expiration or 20 termination of the subject residential cooperative ground lease. Any 21 renewal term pursuant to the foregoing shall be equal to the term of 22 such subject residential cooperative ground lease prior to such expira-
23 tion or termination and shall occur automatically, unless the subject 24 residential cooperative ground lease affirmatively elects to not so
25 renew and has provided written notice of such non-renewal to the subject 26 ground lease owners.

27 4. After the effective date of this section, any residential ground
28 lease cooperative shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, 29 including prohibitions or specified dollar limitations, set forth in a 30 subject residential cooperative ground lease, have the authority, right 31 and power to incur indebtedness or otherwise borrow money, and to grant 32 a first mortgage and/or other similar security interest on or in the 33 ground lease apartment building with respect to such indebtedness or 34 borrowed money, of any amount, if the primary purpose of such indebt-
35 edness and/or borrowed money is to provide proceeds or other credit
36 support to pay or fund additional rent or otherwise perform repairs, 37 maintenance or other capital improvements on or with respect to the 38 ground lease real property and/or the ground lease apartment building.

39 5. (a) If, after the effective date of this section, any subject 40 ground lease owner proposes to directly or indirectly sell, assign, 41 exchange, or otherwise transfer any direct or indirect interest in any 42 ground lease real property, including, without limitation, any indirect 43 hypothecation by way of transfers of interests in any entity that is 44 itself a subject ground lease landlord or an owner thereof and/or the 45 subject residential cooperative ground lease itself, the subject
46 ground lease owner shall provide the residential ground lease cooper-
47 ative with written notice thereof containing the price and all other 48 terms and conditions of such direct or indirect proposed sale, assign-
49 ment, exchange, transfer, or other similar conveyance. The residential 50 ground lease cooperative shall have the right to purchase the interest 51 being sold, assigned, exchanged, transferred, or conveyed at the same 52 price and on substantially similar terms and conditions by providing 53 written notice to the subject ground lease owner within one hundred 54 twenty days of receipt of the aforementioned written notice from the 55 subject ground lease owner. The closing of the purchase by the residen-56 tial ground lease cooperative shall occur within the time frame and

1 pursuant to procedures adopted by the commissioner pursuant to paragraph 2 (d) of this subdivision.

3 (b) If an offer to purchase by the residential ground lease cooper-
4 ative is not delivered within such one hundred twenty day period, then, 5 unless the subject ground lease owner thereafter elects to directly or 6 indirectly sell, assign, exchange, or otherwise transfer any direct or 7 indirect interest in any ground lease real property at a price lower 8 than the price specified in the notice to the residential ground lease 9 cooperative or on terms different from those presented to the residen-
10 tial ground lease cooperative, the subject ground lease owner has no 11 further obligations under this section, unless the subject ground lease 12 owner does not directly or indirectly sell, assign, exchange, or other-13 wise transfer any direct or indirect interest in any ground lease real 14 property in accordance with the foregoing within one hundred twenty days 15 after the expiration of the one hundred twenty day period commencing 16 with delivery of the written notice of the proposed sale to the residen-
17 tial ground lease cooperative, in which case the provisions of para-18 graphs (a) and (c) of this subdivision shall continue to apply.

19 (c) If the subject ground lease owner, after such one hundred twenty 20 day period, elects to directly or indirectly sell, assign, exchange, or 21 otherwise transfer any direct or indirect interest in any ground lease 22 real property at a price lower than the price specified in the notice to 23 the residential ground lease cooperative or on terms different from 24 those presented to the residential ground lease cooperative, then the 25 residential ground lease cooperative shall be entitled to notice thereof 26 and shall have an additional one hundred twenty days after receipt of 27 notice of the revised terms to deliver to the subject ground lease owner
28 a written notice indicating exercise of such residential ground lease 29 cooperative's right to purchase which meets the revised price, terms, 30 and conditions as presented by the subject ground lease owner. The 31 closing of the purchase by such residential ground lease cooperative 32 shall occur within the time frame and pursuant to procedures adopted by 33 the commissioner pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subdivision.

34 (d) The commissioner shall adopt the procedures in connection with 35 this subdivision no later than one year after the effective date of this 36 section to give effect to closing terms and conditions associated with 37 any purchase and sale contemplated by this subdivision.

38 (e) This section does not apply to purchases of ground lease real 39 property by a governmental entity under its powers of eminent domain.

40 § 2. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part 41 of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to 42 be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the 43 remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, 44 sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly 45 involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been 46 rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that 47 this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not 48 been included herein.

49 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all 50 existing leases as of such effective date and to any renewals, amend-51 ments and other extensions of such leases.
